The upcoming GNOME 3.34 release is sure to ship with a stack of improvements, new features and core app updates ? but it will also come with a brand new default wallpaper!

GNOME designer Jakub Steiner is, once again, diligently designing a new desktop drape for the revered free desktop to use by default.

And although the intended design is not final-final, it's almost done! So here's your first look at the brand new GNOME 3.34 wallpaper...
