- 10/03/2019 | Linux Headlines [2]

PostgreSQL 12 is here with performance gains and more, Google plans to phase out mixed security content in Chrome, and a new funding source for The Document Foundation.

- The Coffee Shop Problem | TechSNAP 413 [3]

We peer into the future with a quick look at quantum supremacy, debate the latest DNS over HTTPS drama, and jump through the hoops of HTTP/3.

Plus when to use WARP, the secrets of Startpage, and the latest Ryzen release.

- LHS Episode #306: The Weekender XXXV [4]

It's time once again for The Weekender. This is our bi-weekly departure into the world of amateur radio contests, open source conventions, special events, listener challenges, hedonism and just plain fun. Thanks for listening and, if you happen to get a chance, feel free to call us or e-mail and send us some feedback. Tell us how we're doing. We'd love to hear from you.

- Command Line Heroes season 3, episode 8: The C Change [5]

C and UNIX are at the root of modern computing. Many of the languages we've covered this season are related to or at least influenced by C. But UNIX and C only happened because a few developers at Bell Labs created both as a skunkworks project.

- Reality 2.0 ? Destroy This Podcast [6]

Katherine Druckman, Doc Searls, and Petros Koutoupis talk about ownership, freedom, and convenience in the digital world.

- Lubuntu 19.10 Beta Run Through [7]

In this video, we are looking at Lubuntu 19.10 Beta.
