- foss-north 2020 virtual lightning talks [2]

  On Sunday March 22 foss-north 2020 will go virtual with a set of lightning talks. This will be the dress rehearsal before the big virtual event March 29 ? April 1. Join us and enjoy the fun!

- ChefConf 2020 Moving to a Digital Experience [3]

  The COVID-19 pandemic is having a tragic and widespread impact around the globe, and creating unprecedented disruption in all areas of our lives.

  For the safety of our community, speakers, staff, and sponsors, and in alignment with local, regional and federal guidance and mandates, we have decided to combine both ChefConf 2020 Seattle and ChefConf 2020 London into a single online experience to be held on June 2, 2020.

- Daniel Stenberg: curl up 2020 goes online only [4] curl up 2020 will not take place in Berlin as previously planned. The corona times are desperate times and we don?t expect things to have improved soon enough to make a physical conference possible at this date.

  curl up 2020 will still take place, and at the same date as planned (May 9-10), but we will change the event to a pure online and video-heavy occasion. This way we can of course also even easier welcome audience and participants from even further away who previously would have had a hard time to participate.
