The kernel’s Device Mapper (DM) code with Linux 5.13 has some improvements worth mentioning this cycle.

DM-Integrity, which via emulating a block device allows for storing additional integrity information, TRIM/DISCARD is now used to avoid needlessly rewriting of metadata. Additionally, DISCARD is also used to improve hash re-calculation.