- Now Hiring! Project Coordinator | Inkscape [2]
  As Inkscape continues to grow, the responsibilities of the Inkscape team increase in tandem. To keep up with the current pace, the Project Leadership Committee are looking for a Project Coordinator.

- Michael Ablassmeier: fscom switch shell [3]
The command and password are not documented by the manufacturer, I wondered whether it is possible to extract that password from the firmware. After all: it's my device, and I want to have access to all the features!

As last year there will be a Debian Reunion Hamburg 2022 event taking place at the same location as previous years, from May 23rd until the 30th.

This is just a preliminary announcement to get the word out, that this event will happen, so you can ponder attending. The wiki page has more information and some fine folks have even already registered!
