"Maybe SCO Group should be called "the gang that couldn't sue straight.""

"SCO Group of Lindon, Utah, became high-tech's most hated company after suing IBM over the free Linux operating system. Now Linux lovers everywhere can celebrate: SCO is having problems."

"On March 3, SCO said it would restate results for three quarters in its 2004 fiscal year, which ended in October. Meanwhile SCO also is at risk of being delisted from Nasdaq and in February had a scarlet "E" attached to its ticker symbol after it failed to file its annual report on time."
