I know, I should probably get a life and stop boasting about my small over-comings of Microsoft's huge shortcomings. 🙄 I should also stop drinking too much tea. I think it's melting my brain. 🙄 No? Fine then, I think I will pester you all with this post on the WINDows Emulator. Also fondly referred to by Linux gamers as, WINE.

I should probably stop cribbing about Microsoft now that I have something MUCH more effective,secure and ass-kicking-ly AWESOME. Yes, I was referring to Ubuntu. 🙄 But enough about the bragging. I will now describe how not to use Windows in your life again AT ALL! You could also picture this as a guide to stop using microsoft.

So here goes?
