Despite the project being less than 3 months old all 50 pages in the user-contributed publication have been completed, creating a compelling list of contents aimed at casual and pro Gimp users alike.

Amongst the features and articles included in Issue #1 are:

- Feature on a photographer who uses only GIMP and UFRAW
- Master Class tutorial in GIMP of a real location in France
- HDR photography story using GIMP and related software packages
- A ?Back to School? list of essential GIMP resources
- Design gallery featuring contributions from the GIMP Community
- A unique non-technical GIMP 2.8 review
