There are Linux distributions out there for pretty much every taste and purpose, but every once in a while I'll come across one that seems especially intriguing.

That happened this week with the release of ZevenOS 5.0, a Linux distro that's based on the lightweight Xubuntu but adds a multimedia focus.

?I am proud to announce the release of ZevenOS 5.0,? reads the Tuesday announcement on the project site. ?ZevenOS still is the best Linux distribution with a BeOS touch.?
