- Top 20 Countries In Europe For GNU/Linux Page-views [3]

Yesterday, Europe had an average of 2.29% page-views from GNU/Linux desktops according to StatCounter.

- Finnish Spikes In GNU/Linux Usage And Chrome Browser Linked [4]

This suggests the spiking systems are a single organization on a single schedule with a single system administrator? Sounds like schools to me but it could also be a large business or government or particular device sold in huge quantity without automatic updating. The 3 spikes on weekdays suggests to me it's the schools.

- No Ceiling For GNU/Linux On The Desktop [5]

Yesterday, with nearly 2 billion citizens of the Internet, GNU/Linux desktops had 1.75%, ~35million. Chrome GNU/Linux had 0.46%, ~10million, with another 7million expected in 2015.
