While Red Hat, Inc. has its own public Cloud strategy, it also plays well with others, according to Jason Nash, director of Next Gen Architectures at Sirius Computer Systems, Inc.

?Red Hat says: ?Run this on whatever you want to run it on,? Nash told theCUBE at the Red Hat Summit in Boston, Mass.

?People like that level of choice,? added Nash. ?Red Hat has an advantage because a lot of times they?ll make it easy before the community makes it easy, and it's what a lot of customers want.?
