- The Dual Boot Deception [2]

In this video, I'll go through many of the perils of dual booting and I'll also explain why I don't usually support systems that are configured in a dual boot environment. It's not just Linux that has problems in a dual boot setup; Windows seems to come up with strange issues when paired with Linux as well. There is also a psychological factor to consider. Constantly comparing and keeping up with two operating systems on the same machine can trigger all kinds of OCD behavior.

- OpenStack Liberty and Debian [3]

It's been a long time I haven't written here. And lots of things happened in the OpenStack planet. As a full time employee with the mission to package OpenStack in Debian, it feels like it is kind of my duty to tell everyone about what's going on.
