

Mystery deepens around missing Oakland woman

By srlinuxx

Created 15/09/2006 - 7:32pm

Submitted by srlinuxx on Friday 15th of September 2006 07:32:00 PM Filed under Reiser [1]

Nine days have passed since Nina "Nenasha" Reiser was last seen dropping off her son and daughter at their father's Montclair home, and the mystery surrounding her disappearance deepened Tuesday.

Amidst revelations of a tumultuous divorce, police said they found the 31-year-old mother's missing 2001 Honda mini-van in another part of Montclair near Highway 13 last week.

In addition, police had her children, ages 5 and 6, removed from the custody of their father, Hans Reiser, last Friday and placed with county Child Protective Services.

A search of the van and the surrounding area, including hunts by specially-trained tracking dogs, have failed to produce any tangible leads, police said.

Nina Reiser was supposed to have picked up her children on Sept. 4 but did not do so, and a friend alerted the authorities.

Reiser was born and raised in Russia, where she practiced as a gynecologist, friends said. She moved to the United States in 2000, where she and her husband started a technology company.

Full Story [2].

Reiser

Source URL: <http://www.tuxmachines.org/node/9638>

Links:

[1] <http://www.tuxmachines.org/taxonomy/term/124>

[2] http://www.insidebayarea.com/argus/ci_4326806